

Approved Bonfire Locations

Bonfires may not exceed 4' X 4'
Please burn only in Fire Pit Areas

Unalaska, Amaknak & Sedanka Islands

A Guide to the responsible use of privately-owned lands.

907.581.1276 info@ounalashka.com

www.ounalashka.com PO Box 149, Unalaska, Alaska 99685-0149

Harvesting Plan

Allowed Harvesting Activities:
Subsistence harvesting of berries and plants.

Prohibited Harvesting Activities:
Commercial use of harvested berries and plants.

Restricted/Limited Harvesting Activities:
Group harvesting, Tour Groups, and commercial activity require prior notification to OC, a special permit, and may be subject to limitations depending on activity.
Contact OC's office at 907-581-1276.

To promote sustainable use of resources on OC properties, the following Unangan Values are provided as a guide to harvesting from OC properties:

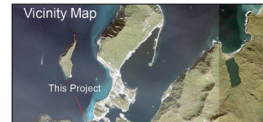

- Berries that are easy to access are for the elderly to pick.
- Do not over-harvest; only take what you are capable of processing and using for subsistence.
- Do not damage the berry bushes or land in the harvesting process.

Permits may be obtained online at Ounalashka.com.

Approved Burn Area at Morris Cove

Approved Burn Area at Little South America

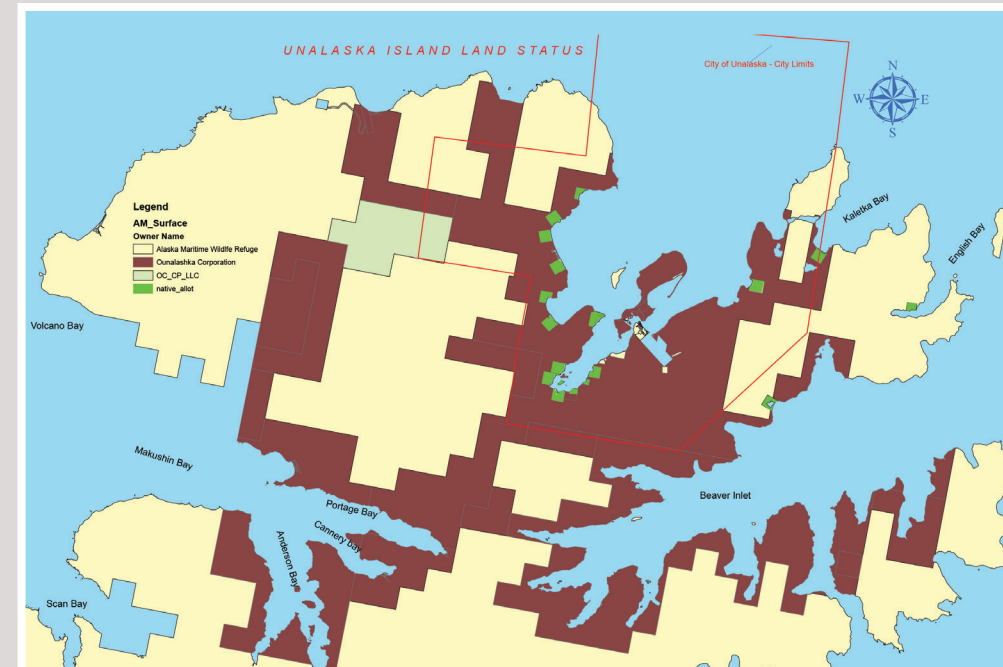

A Few Simple Rules

The Ounalashka Corporation (OC) is happy to share the beauty of its land with non-shareholders as long as our wishes as landowner are respected and our few rules are adhered to (along with compliance with all City, State and Federal laws). Each non - shareholder 18 years and older must have a valid land use permit issued by OC.

The following activities are prohibited on OC lands:

- The use of explosives, flares, or fireworks of any kind. Discharging a firearm, except where a valid Hunting Permit has been issued by OC, and all requirements of the permit as well as all Federal, State, and Local Laws are followed. Only Shotguns may be used to hunt on OC Lands.
- Use of off-road vehicles of any type, including, but not limited to, dirt bikes, motorcycles, all-terrain vehicles, dune buggies, two- and four-wheel licensed vehicles, etc.
- Use of snow machines, unless a valid snow machine permit is obtained. Visit the OC Web Site for the notice of when snow machines may be used based upon snow conditions.
- Blocking or otherwise obstructing a public or private road or trail. Storing, discharging, releasing and/or spilling any petroleum product or other hazardous material.
- Parking of vehicles, other than along a permitted public right - of - way or an OC- designated parking area.
- Littering, waste nuisances, graffiti, or otherwise disturbing the natural contour of the land. If you pack it in, pack it out.
- Digging or destruction of vegetation.
- Commercial use of any kind.
- Accessing leased properties.
- Disturbing archaeological sites (this is also a Federal crime, and OC will pursue violators to the fullest extent of the law).

- Building or making a large commercial fire without a valid burn permit from the City of Unalaska and the consent of Ounalashka Corporation. Building or making a bonfire, unless it is less than 4' X 4' in size and only if built in a designated/approved bonfire Location according to the attached map. Small camp fires, barbeques, and warming fires, unless they are less than 3 feet wide and have flames less than 2 feet high.
- Trapping. No trapping of any kind is permitted on any OC lands.

Questions?

Call 907.581.1276, or visit us online at Ounalashka.com.

Hiking. Picnicking. Berry picking. Fishing.

Beach combing. Subsistence gathering. Camping. Unalaskans and visitors to Unalaska can do all of these things and more! However, much of the land on Unalaska, Amaknak and Sedanka Islands is privately owned by OC, and permission is required to access or cross its land. Without OC's permission you are trespassing. This includes popular areas like Summer Bay; Humpy Cove; Pyramid Valley; Morris Cove; Mounts Ballyhoo, Pyramid, and Newhall, Eider Point, Ulakta Head; Margret Bay; and Uknadax (formerly known as Hog Island).

Any harvesting on OC lands shall be in strict accordance with the OC Harvesting Plan.

Unalaska. Amaknak. Sedanka. These three islands in the Aleutian Chain offer wonderful recreational opportunities and unparalleled scenery. Unalaska and Amaknak Islands are the home of the City of Unalaska and the International Port of Dutch Harbor.

